

Are Christians Biased In Their Reasoning?

The Objectivity of Science

The world around us would like to segregate all truths into two separate boxes:

Objective Facts That Can Be Verified By Science:

---

---

Personal Beliefs That Are Held By Individuals

---

---

Empirical Science and Forensic Science

There is a difference between the two sciences:

Empirical Science:

---

---

Forensic Science:

---

---

Science Versus “Scientism”

The methodology and philosophy of science are inseparably intertwined!

The Scientific METHOD

---

---

The Scientific PHILOSOPHY

---

---

Real Bias

So who is truly biased here:

Philosophical Naturalists

---

---

Christians

---

---

How God Feels About the Journey

Does our search for truth mean that we really have doubts, and does the presence of doubt offend God? Did God tell us anything in advance about the presence of evidence in the world around us?

Romans 1:18-20
